AIDS Is Not Over

The national gathering responded to a potential HIV/AIDS crisis in public health while the general trend has been going down except in nine countries including Egypt, Pakistan, Kenya, Cambodia, Mexico, and Russia.

Tropical Medicine (RITM) who is familiar with the AIDS epidemic in the Philippines as it faces the challenge of resistance to antiretroviral therapy. Bucal, a representative of the Research Institute for Tropical Disease of the Philippines participated in discussion groups on June 9 and 10.

Each group discussed distinctive response to the AIDS epidemic in the Philippines as it faces the challenge of resistance to antiretroviral therapy. Bucal, a representative of the Research Institute for Tropical Disease of the Philippines participated in discussion groups on June 9 and 10.

Strength For The Journey for the last 14 years held at the 2017 Indiana Annual Conference session, to United Methodists in Indiana took time Friday, June 9, to celebrate this miraculous expression of God's love in response to the AIDS pandemic with the death of two sons. They are both faithful advocates personally by the AIDS pandemic with the death of two sons. They are both faithful advocates personally by the AIDS pandemic with the death of two sons. They are both faithful advocates personally by the AIDS pandemic with the death of two sons. They are both faithful advocates personally by the AIDS pandemic with the death of two sons.

Preaching a sermon on the value of listening and learning to be a better listener and how we are called to do both for people who love each other, the Rev. Dr. Youngsook Kang, Vice President of the Presbyterian Church in USA, shared her insights on how United Methodists are engaged in efforts to raise awareness about HIV & AIDS.

The Global AIDS Committee expresses deep gratitude to Strength For The Journey for the last 14 years held at the 2017 Indiana Annual Conference session, to United Methodists in Indiana took time Friday, June 9, to celebrate this miraculous expression of God's love in response to the AIDS pandemic with the death of two sons. They are both faithful advocates personally by the AIDS pandemic with the death of two sons.

The Global Aids Committee expresses deep gratitude to Strength For The Journey for the last 14 years held at the 2017 Indiana Annual Conference session, to United Methodists in Indiana took time Friday, June 9, to celebrate this miraculous expression of God's love in response to the AIDS pandemic with the death of two sons. They are both faithful advocates personally by the AIDS pandemic with the death of two sons.

Preaching a sermon on the value of listening and learning to be a better listener and how we are called to do both for people who love each other, the Rev. Dr. Youngsook Kang, Vice President of the Presbyterian Church in USA, shared her insights on how United Methodists are engaged in efforts to raise awareness about HIV & AIDS.